

I. INTRODUCTION

- A. Purpose: To provide Department personnel with specific strategic priorities as they relate to Department policy in the field of Truck Company Operations.
- B. Scope: This instruction applies to all uniformed personnel.
- C. Author: The Deputy Fire Chief of the Special Operations Bureau, through the Training Services Section, is responsible for the content, revision and annual review of this instruction.

II. RESPONSIBILITY

- A. All personnel shall be familiar with the Truck Company Operations procedures contained in this text, and become proficient in all phases.
- B. Company Captains shall be responsible for the training of all personnel under their command regarding Truck Company Operations.
- C. All personnel are responsible for complying with the safety practices and basic objectives contained in this text.

III. POLICY

- A. The information included in this book shall be considered the Department's approved reference for the subject of Truck Company Operations.

IV. APPENDIX

Appendix – Truck Company Operations Training Guide